

Non-Profit Fee Waiver Process

The Town of Georgetown supports local non-profit organizations, their missions to benefit the Georgetown community, and their fundraising efforts. Non-profits located in Clear Creek County are eligible to have fees waived for permits and licenses issued by the Town of Georgetown at the discretion of the Town Administrator. To be considered for a waiver:

1. Applicants submit the necessary paperwork to the Town Clerk
 - Certificate of Good Standing
 - Permit/License application + accompanying documents
 - Fee waiver appeal letter that demonstrates
 - How the organization serves Georgetown
 - How the permitted activity benefits Georgetown
2. Town Administrator will review appeal letter and determine whether the non-profit meets the following criteria:
 - Nonprofit is in Clear Creek
 - Nonprofit serves Georgetown residents
 - The permit or license for which the fee is being waived benefits Georgetown
3. Town Clerk issues permit or license
