

Department of Law

Attorney General-Consumer Protection Section

TRANSFERABILITY OF TRAINING AND CREDENTIALS SUBJECT TO TRAINING REPAYMENT AGREEMENT PROVISIONS

4 CCR 904-4

[Editor's Notes follow the text of the rules at the end of this CCR Document.]

A training or credential is transferable for the purposes of C.R.S. Section 8-2-113(3)(a) when it is engaged in voluntarily by the employee and directly results in either

- (a) an educational degree or certification from
 - i. a private college or university authorized to operate in Colorado under C.R.S. Section 23-2-103.3;
 - ii. a private occupational school with a certificate of approval under C.R.S. Section 23-64-115(1);
 - iii. a community or technical college identified in C.R.S. Section 23-60-205; or
 - iv. a public institute of higher education as defined in C.R.S. Section 23-4.5-102(7); or
- (b) a license
 - i. as defined in C.R.S. Section 12-20-102(9);
 - ii. a commercial driver's license as defined in C.R.S. Section 42-2-402(1);
 - iii. any license defined in Colorado law;
 - iv. a comparable license or credential defined in the law of any other state, territory, district, or federally recognized Indian Tribe; or
 - v. a certificate or license granted by a federal government agency; or
- (c) a training or credential that is recognized by an industry or trade association, a union, or other organization representing employers or workers within the profession or occupation to which the training or credential is related.

Editor's Notes

History

New rule eff. 04/30/2026.