History

Entire rule repealed eff. 07/15/2014.

Annotations

The Committee on Anticompetitive Conduct (CAC) regulations limits the scope of the CAC's jurisdiction. CAC was not intended to be the repository of all claims of anticompetitive conduct between a physician and a hospital. As a result, the CAC's jurisdiction encompasses only antitrust allegations arising out of adverse decisions regarding physician competency. Ryals v. St. Mary-Corwin Regional Med. Ctr., 10 P.3d 654 (2000).
